Sports: Youth

Basketball

Our Recreational Basketball League will provide youth with a framework for sportsmanship and fair play while learning the basic fundamentals of the sport.

Registration Procedures

Registration for Carlsbad Youth Basketball can be completed online at www.carlsbadconnect.org, by mail, fax or walk-in. Forms are available at any community center or library. Once registered, all players must attend an evaluation session for team placement. See schedule on page 54.

LEAGUE PLAY

Practices begin in November. Games begin in December. Season ends in March.

ALL-GIRLS DIVISION

Girls! If the coed division is not for you, all-girls teams are available for all grades.

PARENT MEETING

One parent from each participant must attend a mandatory parent meeting (date TBA). This meeting is for all parents.

VOLUNTEER COACHES

We are always in need of dedicated volunteer coaches. It's a great way to get involved in the community. Call the Youth Sports Office at 434-2971 or www.carlsbadsports.org for details.

Basketball 101 Clinic

This three-hour basketball clinic for children in 3rd-8th grades is the perfect prelude to participating in our Youth Basketball leagues, whether a first-time or returning player. Participants will be exposed to various drills, fundamentals, and games, which are skill specific from beginners to advance. A coach with vast experience in youth, high school, and college levels, instructs the camp. The instructor is also a former instructor with the Earvin 'Magic' Johnson basketball camps with the LA Lakers.

NFL Punt Pass and Kick

Punt, Pass and Kick is a free, national skills program organized by the National Football League in partnership with local groups such as parks and recreation departments, Boys and Girls Clubs, Pop Warner, etc. The program is geared for boys and girls ages 8-15 to compete separately against their peers in punting, passing and place-kicking. Kids of all abilities are welcome, and offered an equal opportunity to compete. This is a free event to all participants. The top finishers in each age group advance to an Area Competition; traditionally, this event is hosted by the San Diego Chargers at Qualcomm Stadium during a season game. The City of Carlsbad Recreation Department is offering this program in collaboration with the Carlsbad Boys and Girls Club. Proof of age and additional waiver provided by NFL is required for this program. For more info, please see www.carlsbadsports.org or call 434-2971.

Teens*CIT Teen Program

The CIT Program is a free after school program for middle school and high school youth who wish to develop skills in leadership, communication and volunteerism. The program requires a commitment from the participants to attend the program at least 12 days per calendar month, participate in two community service activities per month and maintain good standing in school. The CIT's will also have opportunities to participate in enrichment classes, field trips and other service learning opportunities. This is great experience for college applications and job resumes. The program is closed during school holidays. Please call 602-7527 for more information.
